Riesling | 2022 vintage

Judges: Andrew Higgins, Chris Carpenter, Stephanie Lucas, Jaden Hall

Comments: great class of such an important classic variety in the cooler climate landscape. Top wines show 3 different styles of Riesling all executed extremely well. Producers need to be careful with acid & sugar balance as many wines were unbalanced in this aspect

Comments: A lot of forward and developed wines for cool climate. Residual sugar needs to be balanced for level of fruit and acid, too many sweet wines. New and interesting varieties, need to let the fruit talk, not cover up with too much winemaking artifact, oak, lees, solids.

Comments: Difficult class, quite a few wines lacking in fruit ripeness and intensity or tannin ripeness, with some underripe characters coming through. No winemaking faults just light palate weight.

Comments: Great class. Some very interesting wines and great to see different styles coming through. Rewarded different styles in the gold medals, one lighter/medium bodied but vibrant and lifted, the other fuller bodied with more oak input, but still with everything in balance. Only thing that kept wines out of medal contention was looking tired / lacking freshness, hard green unresolved tannins.
